

CODA Welcomes New Programs Manager

The Council on Drug Abuse is pleased to welcome Billi Jo Cox to our team as Programs Manager. Billi Jo's primary responsibilities at CODA include the development, delivery, management and evaluation of all CODA programs, including the new CODA-certified educator (CCE) program and the Youth Advisory Council that will be launched this year.

Billi Jo's educational background includes a bachelor of science in psychology degree from Lakehead University. Before joining the Council on Drug Abuse, Billi Jo worked at BACCHUS Canada, in the post-secondary division of The Student Life Company that addresses alcohol-related issues. While at BACCHUS, Billi Jo developed and managed a variety of programs and campaigns, as well as co-ordinating and delivering peer education seminars at universities and colleges.
